The compress at Sherman has squeezed all the cotton on hand and closed down for the season.—Sherman Register.

Thuru E. Lewis, a former resident of Sherman, was shot to death in east Dallas by Robert Elliott, a well digger.—Sherman Register.

Joseph H. Black, of San Antonio, late of Capt. Llewellyn's company of Roosevelt's Rough Riders, died last week at Clifton, Arizona. The remains will be brought here for interment.—Sherman Register.

Editors A. S. Crisp and H. F. Marr are to be commended for their active efforts in behalf of the South and West Texas Press Association.—San Antonio Express.

The Goubbs bill which provides for an industrial school for girls has passed the house and is now "up to" the voss. A force of men have been at work this week making the necessary excavations for the stone work. Mexicans are now making the adobes, getting ready to put up the walls in the least possible time.—Pecos Pickings.

The joint commission at Hill and Johnson counties met at Hillsboro to determine where the summer normal should be held—Hillsboro or Tascas. Hillsboro was selected after much wrangling and T. S. Cox unanimously selected conductor of the ground. The normal faculty has not yet been selected.—San Antonio Express.

Mrs. M. P. Barrett, a middle aged lady of Hillsboro, while cooking breakfast this morning wheeled suddenly to her child, who was crying, breaking her left leg near the knee. As she struck nothing near her and not falling, it is a mystery how and why the limb should break so easily. She has always enjoyed good health.—San Antonio Express.

Digging for buried treasure on the Matson farm near Hillsboro still continues. The cave found is said to be perfect curiosity, the bottom of which is said to resemble the inside of a passenger coach. Traces of furniture and bed clothing are in evidence at a depth of nineteen and a half feet.

senate. What that body will do with the bill can only be conjectured, but it is believed that the bill will be favorably acted upon.

The wolf club, organized in Burnet county, several months since, is pretty effectually ridding the county of the arch sheep enemy. They pay $5 per scalp, and the hunters are rapidly exterminating the pesky pests.—San Antonio Express.

Mr. J. M. Johnson, lately defeated for city attorney of Hillsboro, says he will contest the election on the ground of irregular tally sheets and illegal voting. He claims he has the names of six white and seven colored illegal voters, whereas he was defeated by only two votes.—San Antonio Express.

Died a few days ago of appendicitis. Mr. Leland was proprietor of the Windsor hotel in New York at the time it burned, and in the fire he lost his wife and daughter.

Two of the Burnet county's worthy citizens have in the past two weeks lost their barns by fire, and as each had about 400 bushels of corn stored therein, which was also consumed, will prove a serious loss, especially at this early day in the season.—San Antonio Express.

Work on the new hotel at Fort Stockton is being rapidly pushed forward under the direction of Contractor Sur-

October 2nd, 1896 and January 2nd, 1900.

The new Methodist Episcopal church, south, was dedicated last week, by Rev. Bishop W. W. Duncan. He was assisted by Rev. Kniff, of Mexico City. Rev. Portugal, Rev. Rivera and Dr. Whiena, secretary of church extension.—Mexican Herald.

The engineers in charge of the boundary commission of Guatemala and Mexico respectively have signed the plans which determine the boundary between the two countries.—Two Republics.

The foreign office is in receipt of the necessary papers for the extradition of Luis Jaquemot or Keyser, who is wanted in the United States and France for forgery and other crimes. The police are looking for the fugitive.—Monte-ray Globe.

Prospero Maria, archbishop of Mexico will shortly leave for Rome where he will take part in the Latin American council convoked by the pope for the purpose of discussing questions of interest to the Catholic church in Latin America.

The American embassy is again brightened by the presence of the Misses Clayton, who have returned from a trip to the isthmus, where, in company with Miss Penzel, of Arkansas, and Lieut. Clayton, they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Woods.—Two Republics.

Forest fires are raging in the neighborhood of Villas, on the Central, and have done considerable damage in the last few days. Several huts of natives were burned down and a bridge on the Central was burned out Saturday. The station agent at Villas, in trying to put out the fire, was badly burned.—Mexican Herald.

Francisco Ortiz died recently in Huetamo. He filled the position of secretary of the prefecture for thirty years. He died without having accumulated any store of wealth, leaving only an honored name as a heritage for his children.—Monterey Globe.

At Hermosillo last week a man named Ramon Bringas was run over by the train from Guaymas, suffering a broken leg and other injuries. He walked out from the water tank right in front of the train and was instantly run down.—Mexican Herald.

While excavating near San Cristobal las Casas the workmen discovered a mummy of Chichimec origin, with several articles of pottery and a vase covered with bas-reliefs. It is expected that the mummy will be sent to the capital.—Monterey Globe.

The bank of London and Mexico will raise its capital seven and a half million dollars, making it $17,500,000. A Mexican banker said in explanation: "If the United States annexes Cuba our exports will have to encounter formidable competition, and it will be necessary to furnish money at cheaper rates."—Arizona Republican.

The inhabitants of Guaymas are greatly exercised over the spread of leprosy in that port and are incensed at the Chinese whom they accuse of bringing the dread disease into the country. The police are busy keeping the lower classes from exercising mob law on the celestials.—Monterey Globe.

At Altar Judge Bustillo has ordered into confinement the Escobar Brothers, of El Progreso, on a charge of libel, in an article relative to a property transfer by one Zepeda, and the two journalists have been incarcerated. El Progreso continues to appear, and the edition of Sunday contains some very grave charges against Judge Bustillo.—Mexican Herald.

The Hon. Warner Miller, a United States senator from New York in the early and middle 80's and ever since then a conspicuous figure in the American political arena, is a member of a distinguished party of visitors which arrived in this city recently. Mr. Miller is accompanied by his wife: his son, Mr. B. C. Miller, and his wife, and by his daughter.—Mexican Herald.

The inhabitants of the small towns of Hidalgo have been kept busy extinguishing the forest fires that have broken out in the woods in various portions of the state and which threaten to clear off all the standing timber. The state executive has taken measures to prevent the spread of the fires, but not withstanding all efforts a large amount of damage has been done.—Monterey Globe.

Two men of the common class, Victorian Lopez and Agapito Avealto, who were old time enemies, met yesterday in the Colonia de la Bolea and the former invited the latter into the street to fight. They went out together armed with long and sharp knives, and rushed furiously at one another. Before the police could interfere they had slashed one another up in a frightful manner and they were taken in a dying condition to the Juarez hospital.—Mexican Herald.

At Magdalena recently, Senora Lopez mother-in-law of Colonel Emilio Kosterlitzki, has some men employed doing some work in her garden, and one of the workmen turned up a heavy gold ring Mrs. Lopez had lost twenty-two years ago, when she was a young woman just married. The ring, which was made from placer gold, is of antique gold, and the gold is of very fine quality. It is as bright and handsome as the day it was lost, in 1877.—Mexican Herald.

While about to embark at Progreso on a steamer for Tampico, a cattle buyer, Sr. Jose Transito Mendez, left on the wharf a valise containing among other thing $1,000 in bank-bills and a draft on Tampico for $2,000. On discovering his loss he at once returned from the steamer to the wharf, but of course the valise and its contents had disappeared. Payment on the draft was stopped and a duplicate issued him, but it is probable the $1,000 in bank-bills he will never see again.—Mexican Herald.

A company has just been formed in Guadalajara for the purpose of planting eucalyptus trees. It is said that they have a large capital and that among the stockholders are Mr. Foo, Fernandez del Valle, a wealthy Spaniard, Mr. Shaffeld, of New York city, and Mr. Bryant, of Chicago. The company has already bought 200 acres of land, on which will be planted some 300,000 eucalyptus trees as a starter, the ultimate object of the company being to replenish the arid wastes of the state, which have been wantonly destroyed in years past.—Monterey Globe.
